Consented to Sell Her Hair.

Castine, Me., Nov. 9.—For more than a year the members of the Union church of this village have been making efforts to pay off the mortgage on the property and get money enough to paint the building on the outside. The parishioners held a church fair to secure the money that was needed immediately.

After prayer and singing the pastor announced that Miss Bessie Smythe, daughter of a farmer who lived in the Orland road, had consented to sell her hair at auction and to have it cut off in the presence of the company to be given to the one who would pay the most for it, the money to be devoted to the cause in which all were interested.

The hair was uncoiled and shaken free from pins and combs until it hung down her back and swept the platform. It was very thick and of a ruddy brown color.
The novelty of the scene and the great sacrifice which the good looking young girl was willing to make touched some visitors from out of town in a place that no soliciting committee had been able to reach. The bidding went on briskly until a lawyer from Worcester, Mass., had offered $110.

Then a Boston wholesale merchant arose and said that it was a shame to make such a sacrifice when there was no need of it, and that if he had money enough about his person to protect the girl, the hair should not be cut off. It was then agreed that as the rivals made their bids they should deposit the money on a table in front of the auctioneer.

The contest was spirited for half an hour, and more than $1,000 in bids was on the table when the Worcester man said he had no more money this side of the bank where he made his deposits. As it was agreed that nothing but cash should be taken during the auction, the Boston merchant paid down $536, and Miss Smythe went home, wearing her hair and knowing that the church will be paid from tip of spire to underpinning because she had the courage to make the sacrifice.

"And I don't care so much, anyhow," said she, "because I am engaged to a dear man who would love just as well if I had no hair at all."

PANAMA RECOGNIZED.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.— The republic of Panama was formally recognized by the United States Government Friday, and instructions sent to the United States minister to Colombia and Vice Consul at Panama to inform the Government respectively. In the meantime the action of the Government is being discussed by the entire world.

Favorable expressions have come from Paris and London.
Senator Morgan gave out a statement in which he charges that the President has exceeded the bounds of the treaty of 1846 and will probably involve the country in a war with Colombia. Secretary of State Hay, in a lengthy statement, defends the attitude of the President and says that he acted in accordance with all principles of justice and right and all established precedents. All is quiet at Panama and Colon, with no prospect of bloodshed.

A FREIGHT BLOCKADE.

The freight blockade in the Illinois Central yards, at Paducah, is more complicated than ever. Fully 1,500 cars, nearly all loaded, are in the yards and practically all the tracks are occupied, there being only one or two tracks for trains to move through.

A great deal of the freight is coal. Most of the freight is consigned to the South, but as there is not sufficient motive power to handle it the blockade has resulted. If something is not done soon the condition will be that trains cannot get in and out of Paducah at all. Trainmen say if the company will not furnish engines it will be compelled to increase its yard trackage at that place at once.

$5,000 For An Ear.

New York, Nov. 9.—Nearly 150 men and women, boys and girls, living here, have manifested a willingness to part with their right ear in return for $5,000. Telegrams by the score from nearby states show that there are numerous persons who feel in the same need of money. The offers grow out of an advertisement by a physician offering $5,000 for the right ear of a healthy person. The size of the ear was specified with precision and the doctor stated that sex would not matter.

It appears he has a patient who has grown rich in the western mines, but had the misfortune to lose one of his ears. The doctor makes a specialty of fixing up deformed noses and ears, so that all he needs to rest are the rich man's beauty is an ear of the right size and shape, to be grafted on. A great many of those who called had not been measured before. hand, so their desire to make five thousand dollars could not be gratified.

The doctor believes he has found one that will meet the requirements in one of the city hospitals, but is postponing the operation a week in order to get the best possible fit from among his applicants.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free.

Be sure that the picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Theford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease.
It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine from the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to excel it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marblehead, Ill.

OLLIE JAMES

The Republican papers of this state have paraded Hon. Ollie James, head before the public to sometime. Some of them have said it was the hairless wonder, the Louisville Herald classified it as the unwhiskered reecos, while others went so far as to describe it as a deserted tenement. In each case James "fit back," while on Tuesday he submitted to an analysis of his head—the voters of the state acting as surgeons. The ante-mortem operation revealed this startling fact: His skull was found to contain more brain than is in the entire Republican party of Kentucky.—Columbus Critic.

Right or wrong, we are bound to admire the trick President Roosevelt has turned on the Columbians, who were trying to hold up Uncle Sam. The secession of Panama on Wednesday and the recognition of the separation on Friday shows that even a Northern President can look with favor on secession when the wrong ox is gored. Now let Panama be an-nexed and we will have the canal question settled beyond dispute.
The American canal should be on American soil.
